JOB CONDITIONS:

For construction cleaning, it is required to have water available on each level for cleaning. In puff cleaning, each unit is required to have water for cleaning as well. It is the responsibility of the client to ensure that there is sufficient and reliable water supply available on the job site or in each unit. If there are any issues with the water supply, the client must inform us immediately so that we can take appropriate action. If the issue cannot be resolved in a timely manner, we may need to pause work until the water supply is restored. This may impact the project timeline and budget, and we will work with the client to find a solution that minimizes any delays or additional costs.

Please note that our services do not include paint removal or floor protection removal. It is the responsibility of the client to have these tasks completed prior to our arrival. If these tasks are not completed, it may impact the quality and timeline of our services.
